The first system consists of two staves. The upper staff contains a melodic line with notes including quarter notes, eighth notes, and a half note. The lower staff contains a rhythmic accompaniment with a steady eighth-note pattern and some rests.

The second system continues the musical piece with two staves. The upper staff features a melodic line with various note values, including quarter and eighth notes. The lower staff maintains a consistent eighth-note accompaniment.

The third system begins with a repeat sign on the upper staff. The melodic line in the upper staff includes a long note with a fermata. The lower staff continues with its eighth-note accompaniment.

The fourth system concludes the piece with two staves. The upper staff has a melodic line that ends with a half note. The lower staff provides a final accompaniment of eighth notes.
