für Flöte Solo

Allemande

J.S.Bach (1685-1750)

Flauto

The musical score is written for a single flute. It begins with a treble clef, a 3/4 time signature, and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody is characterized by a steady eighth-note pattern, often with grace notes and trills. The piece is in the key of D major and consists of 32 measures. The notation includes various ornaments and trills, particularly in the first and second halves of the piece. The score is presented in ten staves, with the first staff starting with the instrument name 'Flauto'.

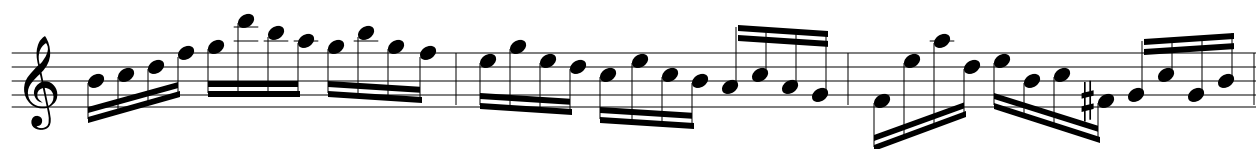

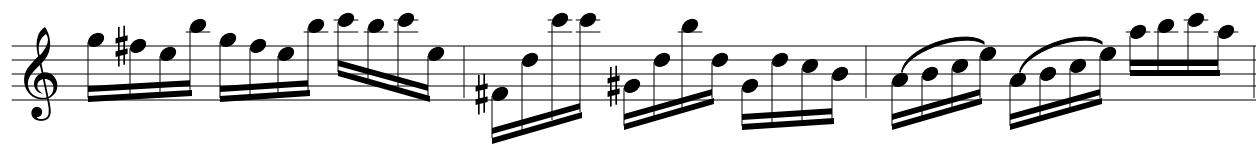

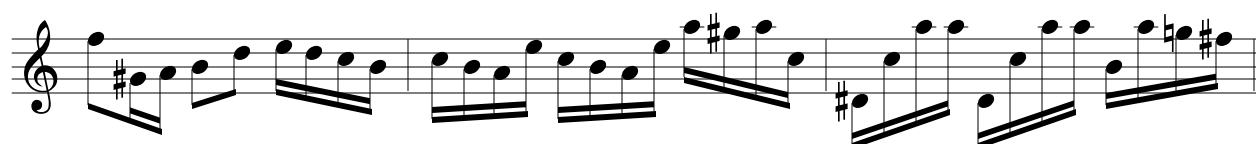

This musical score is written for a single melodic line on a treble clef. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 2/4. The piece is divided into two first endings and a second ending. The first ending consists of the first two measures of the first staff. The second ending consists of the last two measures of the third staff. The rest of the piece is a continuous melodic line across the remaining staves.

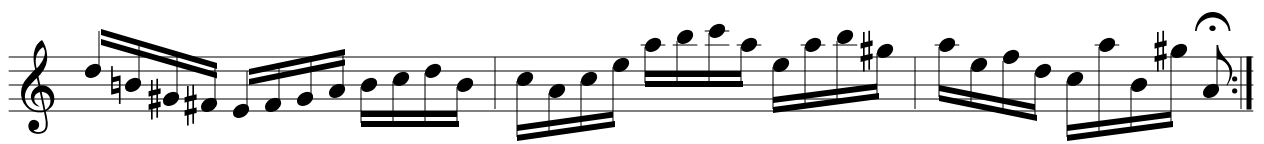

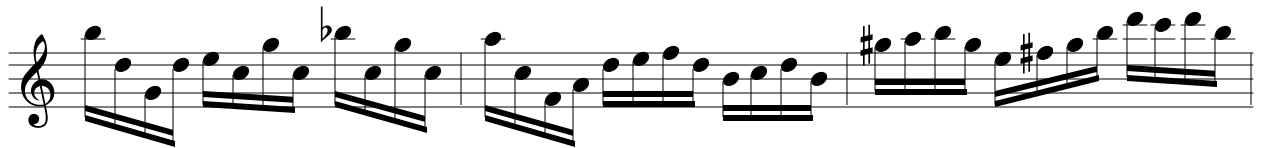

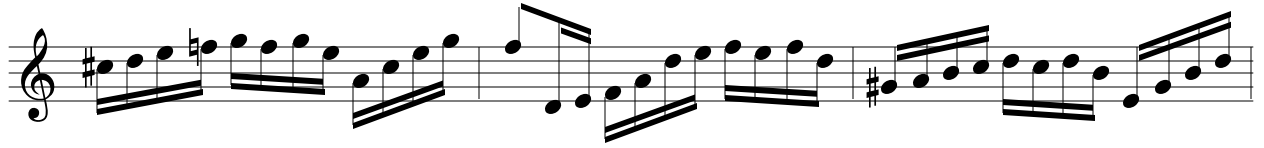

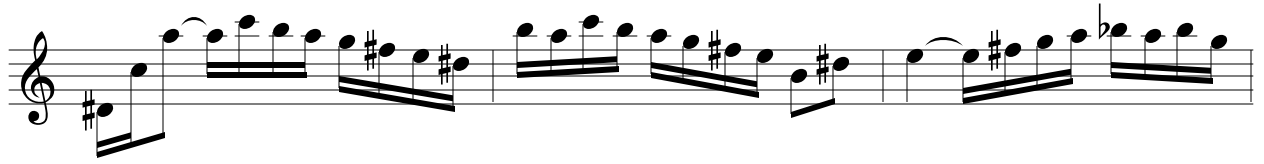

1. 2.

A musical score consisting of six staves of treble clef notation. The music is written in a key with one sharp (F#) and a 3/4 time signature. The first five staves contain a continuous melodic line with various rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes. The sixth staff features a first ending bracket labeled '1.' and a second ending bracket labeled '2.'. The first ending leads to a final cadence, while the second ending provides an alternative path.

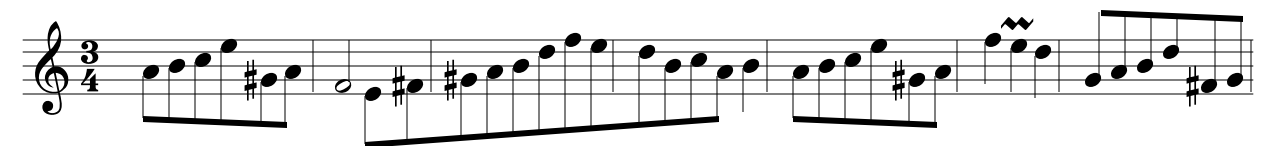

Corrente

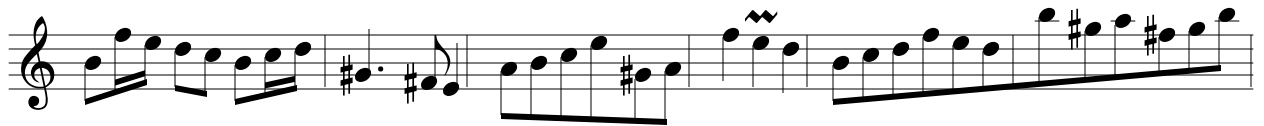

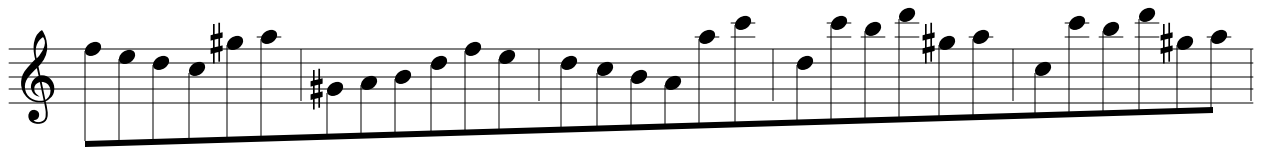

A musical score for a piece titled 'Corrente', consisting of three staves of treble clef notation. The time signature is 3/4. The first staff begins with a quarter rest followed by a melodic line that includes a trill (tr) over a dotted quarter note. The second and third staves continue the melodic development with similar rhythmic patterns and trills.
